

Contents

Introduction

I. Retelling of the Main Story

1. Prehistory
2. Life and Hardship of the Pāṇḍavas
3. Victory and Homecoming

II. Ethical Principles and Spiritual Essence of the Mahabharata

1. Everything is in the Vedas
2. Varnāśrama-Dharma
3. The Spiritual Teacher
4. The Mother of All Living Beings
5. Tied with Three Robes
6. The Cocoon of Deeds
7. Pious Acts and Their Fruits
8. Food
9. Like a Wolf that Has Torn a Sheep
10. Crowned with Righteousness...
11. ... and Decorated with Virtues
12. Communion with Sinners
13. Sinking into Seven Terrible Hells
14. The Raksasa Custom
15. In the Age of Kali
16. The True Enemies
17. Grief and Sorrow
18. Who Will be Happy in this World?
19. In the Boat of Self-control

20. The Value of Renunciation
21. In Great Danger
22. No Eye Resembles the Eye of Knowledge
23. What is Mine?
24. Seek Your Self
25. The Yoga Path
26. Brahman and Liberation
27. You, o Kṛṣṇa, are our Refuge
28. The Glory of the Mahābhārata

III. Fables and other Instructive Stories

1. The Greatness of the Brāhmaṇas
2. Nahuśa's Rise and Fall
3. The Policy of the Weak
4. Pujanī's Distrust
5. Nala and Damayantī
6. Guru-dakṣiṇā
7. The Proper Price for a Ṛṣi
8. Vasiṣṭapavāha
9. Miraculous event on a cremation ground
10. The Power of Fidelity
11. The Ungrateful Gautama
12. Honor to the Guest
13. Become a Dog Again!
14. Viśvāmitra and the Caṇḍāla
15. What is Greater than Hope?
16. Aṣṭavakras Test
17. Soma for the Twin Aśvinis
18. Parāśara's Rākṣasa Sacrifice

19. Bali's Equanimity
20. The Proud Dambhodbhava
21. Mārkaṇḍeya Ṛṣi
22. Brahmā Praises Śrī Viṣṇu
23. Kṛṣṇa Blesses the Ṛṣi Uttara

Appendix

Epilogue

References

Pronunciation of Sanskrit Letters

Glossary of Names

Glossary of Sanskrit Words

Footnotes

Legal Notice